Investigators

Updated October 2026

The individuals listed below are provided to ERMA members as a resource in choosing a workplace investigator. This is not a pre-approved list. Pursuant to ERMA Resolution No. 2021-7 (Establishing Criteria for Approval of Investigators), if an investigation pertains to an ERMA matter, you must first report the claim to ERMA and obtain written approval from the Litigation Manager prior to engaging an investigator in-order for any expenses to count toward your agency's Self-Insured Retention. An investigator's hourly rate is capped at $390.00 per hour for attorney investigators and $280.00 per hour for non-attorney investigators. Should a particular investigation result in litigation or called upon to provide post-investigation services, the hourly rate shall not exceed $425.00 per hour for attorney investigators and $333.00 per hour for non-attorney investigators.
